

Wisconsin Prevention Awards 2009 Nominations

The Wisconsin Prevention Awards recognize individuals and groups who make significant contributions in the field of alcohol and other drug abuse, positive youth development, or have improved the overall health of the community.

The Award Categories are:

Outstanding Elected Official: To recognize an individual working at any level of government, who has made an outstanding contribution that has advanced Wisconsin substance abuse prevention efforts. (NEW award for 2009)

Leadership in Prevention. To recognize an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the field at the community, state, or national level through professional service that benefited Wisconsin prevention efforts.

Outstanding Law Enforcement Partner: To recognize a law enforcement officer or department for their involvement in substance abuse prevention activities in their community, in addition to the enforcement of the law. (NEW award for 2009)

Outstanding Prevention Volunteer – Adult. To recognize an adult volunteer who has made significant contributions to their community in alcohol and other drug abuse prevention, positive youth development or the overall health of the community. This award recognizes service outside of employment, but may be given to someone who works in the prevention field in recognition of their contributions as a volunteer in community prevention initiatives.

Outstanding Prevention Volunteer – Youth. To recognize a youth volunteer (under age 21), who has made significant contributions to their community or has shown leadership in their community's overall prevention efforts.

Outstanding Prevention Coalition. To recognize a coalition or community partnership that has made significant contributions to their community in substance abuse prevention, positive youth development or the overall health of the community.

Lifetime Achievement in Prevention. To recognize an individual who has made exceptional contributions to the field over a number of years. This individual is an innovative thinker, whose work has advanced prevention efforts in Wisconsin and is viewed by his or her peers as an integral part of Wisconsin prevention efforts.

Deadline for nominations is April 24, 2009 – *DEADLINE EXTENDED TO MAY 1, 2009
