2. What were the most helpful features of today's training?

- One-on-one session. Very applicable.
- Totally focused on our programs and its needs, with exception of intro. Getting context, which was useful.
- Time with evaluators.
- The ability to work with multiple evaluators who addressed more specific issues.
- Everything was great. Very knowledgeable staff who were concerned about making information relevant to participants. Time with consultants was invaluable.
- Opportunity to ask questions and time for discussion.
- Having access to the evaluators and the resources they made available.
- The new ideas on how to set goals for the students, charts, going over old material, creating new.
- The one on one consultant attention.
- One on one consultation. I had wondered if I would truly see the value but it was Enormous! Thanks.
- Individually defining and designing specific next steps action plan to move our program into the NREPP process.
- Opportunity to refocus on our models and data.
- Logic model information.
- Working with researchers.
- Vanessa Kittelson– awesome to work with and is really easy to work with.
- The most helpful feature that I thought were very important was structuring and model program. A lot of useful materials.
- Technical assistance for consultants.
- The one on one work.
- Defining next step for programs evaluation, to bring it to the next level.

3. What were the least helpful features of today's training?

- Can't think of anything.
- Trainings very helpful.
- It was all very helpful. While I was already familiar with SPF and the CAPT's approach to evaluation, the review was very much appreciated.

4. In what ways could this workshop be improved?

- More time to share between programs.

- Offer it monthly.
- I'd be willing for the event to be longer. My energy for this process grew the more time we spent together.
- Have part of the second day as a debriefing with participants. Things learned and insights gained we introduced ourselves but didn't hear what we learned.
- More information on "Culturally valid evaluation."

8. Please write in any additional comments or suggestions that you may have.

- Thanks so much for the opportunity.
- This was an outstanding experience and one in which I was very grateful to have the chance to participate. Staff was highly qualified and extremely helpful as well as enjoyable to interact with. Thank you.
- Great.
- I appreciated the opportunity given to share with my evaluator. Evaluator posed excellent skills and showed insight of our program. I appreciated honest answers to my questions regarding SAMHSA's commitment to working it being open to change process of NRREP. All presenters were excellent and showed good insight and knowledge. Thank you.
- Thank you so very much for sharing your expertise with us. I feel so fortunate to have spent this time here and am excited to use this new information. Too bad it is limited in size. Every prevention professional and department could benefit from this workshop.
- This has been very inspirational for me. Glad we had the opportunity to be a part of this. Thanks.
- Great job, it was well done, Thank you.
- Thank you for this opportunity! Wonderful!
- Thank you! I was honored to be a part of this.
- Really feel like we defined next steps and are better prepared to move along.
